STUDIOCANAL and UNDER THE MILKY WAY announce deal on digital distribution of catalogue titles in Latin America

Paris, November 21, 2018 – STUDIOCANAL, the European leader in film and TV production and distribution, and international aggregator UNDER THE MILKY WAY, have signed a digital distribution deal that includes some of the biggest films from STUDIOCANAL's catalogue. The deal covers more than 35 territories including Latin America.

Love Actually, The Third Man, the Rambo trilogy, Basic Instinct and The Graduate are among the films that will be distributed in VOD on the main global platforms such as iTunes, Google or Sony.

"We are thrilled and proud that a leading international studio like STUDIOCANAL has entrusted us with this mission. Through this deal, we have the chance to work on some of the most famous films ever produced, be it auteur films as well as blockbusters", says Alexis De Rendinger, co-founder of UNDER THE MILKY WAY.

Aska Yamaguchi, Head of International Digital Sales at STUDIOCANAL: "We are delighted to be in business with UNDER THE MILKY WAY who have acquired a unique know-how in the ever-evolving digital space. They understand the strength of our catalogue and with the solid partnerships they already have in place with digital players across the globe, we are very much looking forward to seeing our rich catalogue travel even further than it has today."

About UNDER THE MILKY WAY

With more than 5,000 feature films under management, UNDER THE MILKY WAY has one of the world's largest independent film catalogue for digital distribution.
